

INSTRUCTIONS: A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements; or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. This form shall be filed in triplicate for each foreign principal named in the registration statement and must be signed by or on behalf of the registrant.

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney General transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .33 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

Dear Sirs:

This is to confirm our understanding that you have extended your agreement with The International Trade and Development Agency, Inc. (ITDA) as public relations and trade promotion consultants beginning May 1, 1999 for a period of one year, ending April 30, 2000.

We agree to render such services as are usually performed by a public relations consulting organization, and will generally assist you in such activities as we may be called upon to undertake, consistent with our obligations as citizens of the United States.

We understand that the ultimate objective of this campaign is to build greater trade and economic activity between the Republic of China and the United States.

In this connection, we shall furnish you with our analyses and interpretations of political, financial, commercial and sociological developments in the United States and advise you as to actions you may take to further improve trade relations between the two countries.

All reports, recommendations, materials, analyses, and other documents we prepare under this agreement shall become the property of your agency, and we hereby agree that you may make use thereof, without incurring any obligation for compensation other than as set forth in the following paragraph.

In payment for these services, ITDA is to receive an annual retainer of $60,000 (Sixty Thousand Dollars) for the period delineated in paragraph 1. Additional special projects will be assigned and decided upon every three months. For these special projects, ITDA is to be compensated at a mutually agreed upon fee, not to exceed $40,000 (Forty Thousand Dollars) in the contract period.

If the foregoing is in accordance with your understanding of our agreement, please indicate your approval below.

Very Truly Yours,

International Trade and Development Agency, Inc.
